

No, no, no

by Jane Farrall

No!

NO

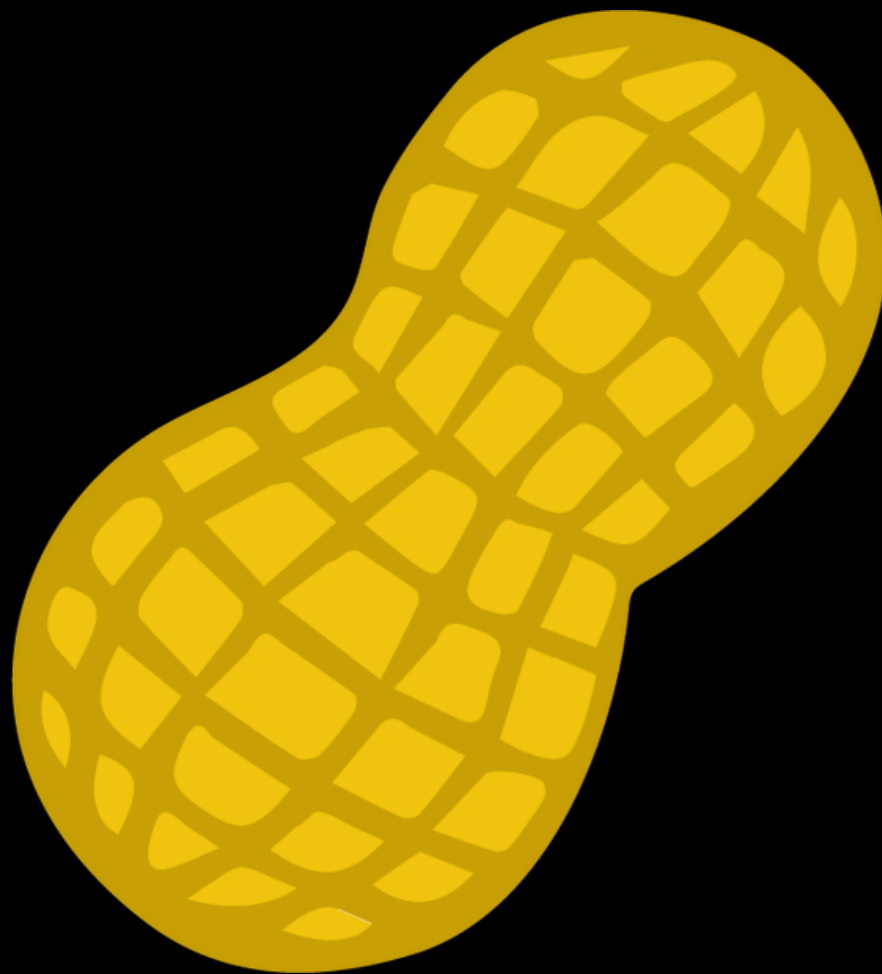

No, no, no.

"I don't like things that start with N."

I don't like them, not now or then."

"Would you like a nut?" I hear you say.

no!

"No, no, no. No nuts for me today or yesterday."

"Don't you like the night?"

NO

"No, no, no."

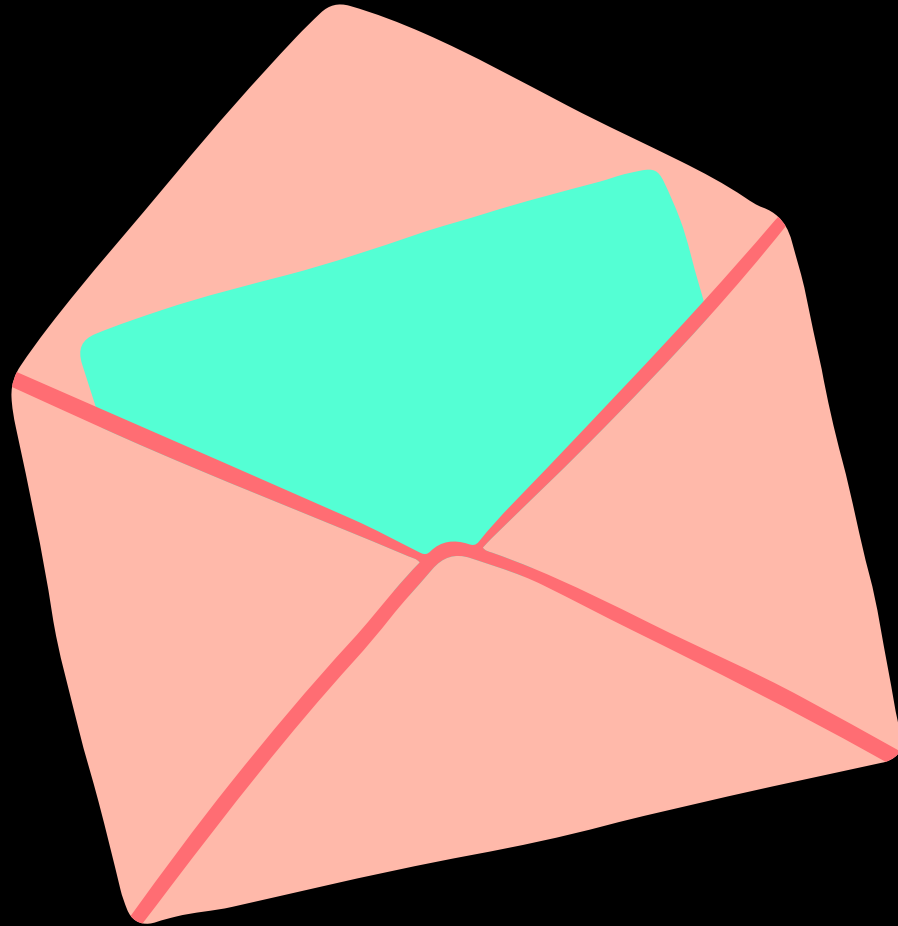

I close my eyes up tight."

"What about a nice friendly note?"

no!

"No, no, no."

I'd rather have a letter. On letters I dote!"

"What about adding up numbers in your head?"

NO

"No, no, no."

I'd much prefer to do maths instead.

N

You see, it's true. What I first said.

I don't like things that start with N,
not from the morning until I go to bed."
