

The Moon

Based on a book by Marie Clay

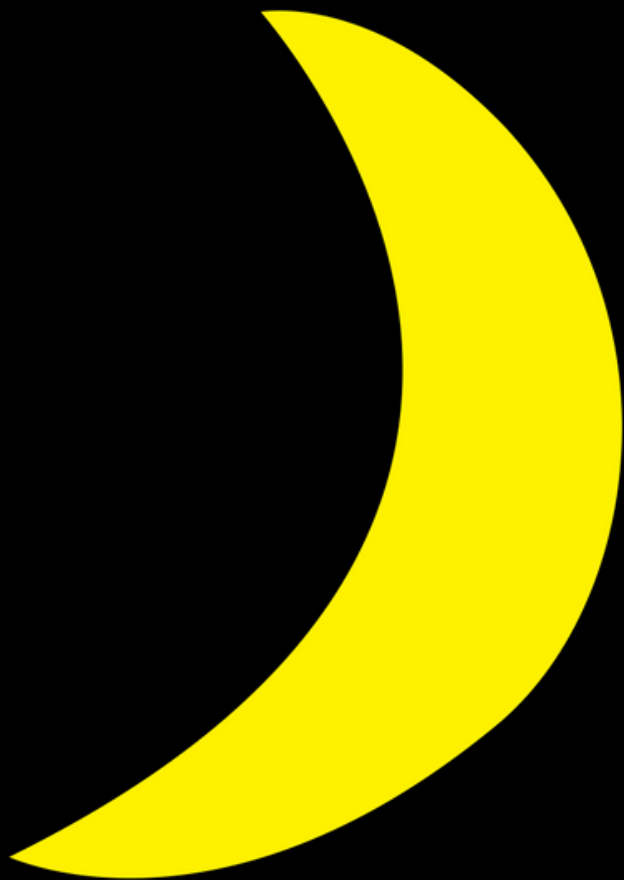

The Moon

Based on a book by Marie Clay

I walked outside in the dark but the moon was in the sky.

I said "I think I'll go for a walk."
I looked up at the moon and it looked down.

I walked to the road and the moon followed me.

I ran around the trees and the moon came too.

I walked up a little hill
and the moon followed me.

Suddenly the moon had gone
and it was very dark.

The stars were twinkling
but the moon had gone.
I stood in the dark and I looked at the sky.

I waited, and watched the stars and the clouds.
Would the clouds move on?
Would I see the moon again?

I thought, "Please, clouds,
let the moon come back.
I need the light to get to my house."

I saw moonlight
and the path to my house.
There were no clouds and the moon was in the sky again.

The moon helped me walk home.

This book is based on Follow Me, Moon - the Concepts About Print Test.

This version has been developed for students with a vision impairment who need high contrast.

To ensure you are covered by copyright, please make sure you own a copy of the original text. Follow Me Moon can be purchased from www.pearson.com.au or from www.pearsoned.co.nz or from a range of other education and book retailers.

PCS and Boardmaker are trademarks of Tobii Dynavox LLC. All rights reserved. Used with permission.