

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

“What do you think we will see next?”

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo.

Say “I’m asking a question”. Now say the sentence above, using Proloquo at the same time.

As you say “what” select the what button, and as you say “see” select the see button.

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

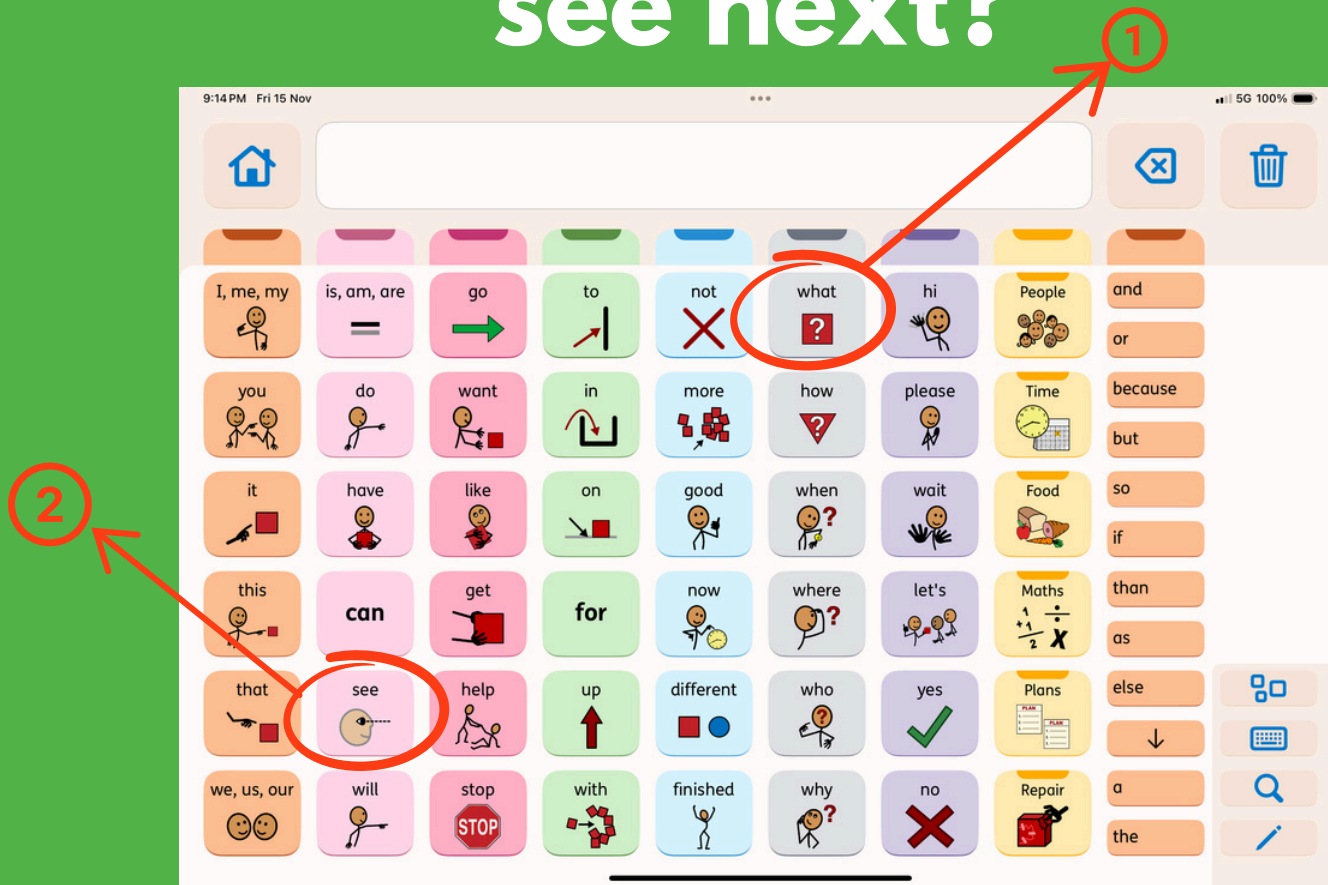

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

SHARED READING: LEVELS 2 & ABOVE: PROLoquo

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

“What do you think we will see next?”

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I'm thinking about what they will do next....

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo.

Now say the sentence above, using Proloquo at the same time.

As you say "will" select the will button, and as you say "do" select the do button.

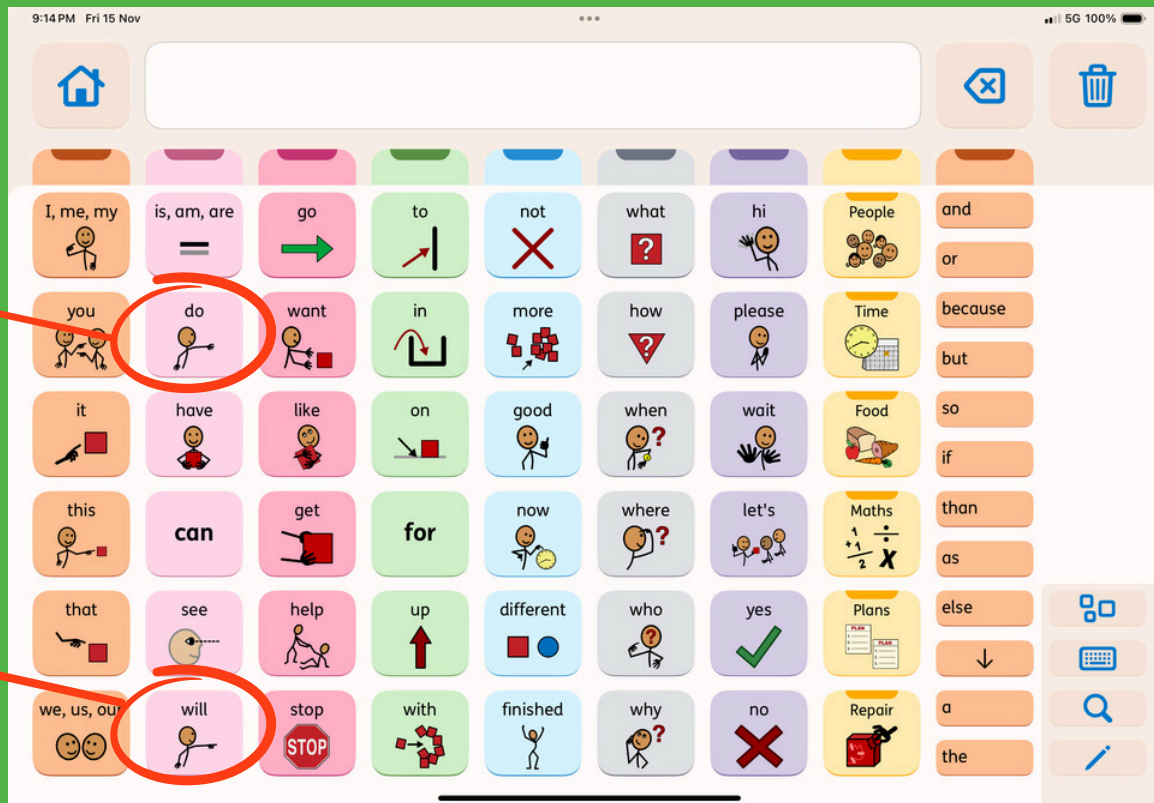

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I'm thinking about what they will do next....

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I'm feeling (xxx). I wonder how you feel.....

From the home page of Proloquo, select the blue tab, then select the Feelings folder.

Now say the sentence above, using Proloquo at the same time.

As you say "feeling" select the feeling button, then select the appropriate feeling on this page for xxx. As you say "you" select the you button.

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too - so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

SHARED READING: LEVELS 2 & ABOVE: PROLoquo

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I'm feeling (xxx). I wonder how you feel.....

The image shows two screenshots of the ProLoquo app interface, which is designed for children with communication needs. The app features a grid of icons representing various concepts, including feelings, actions, and objects. The top screenshot shows the main interface with a grid of icons. A red circle with the number 1 points to a specific icon in the grid. The bottom screenshot shows a similar grid, but with a red circle with the number 2 pointing to a different icon. A red circle with the number 3 points to a specific icon in the grid. A red circle with the number 4 points to a specific icon in the grid. A red circle with the number 5 points to a specific icon in the grid.

1

2

3

4 = the feeling you select for xxx

5

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I like this. It's (xxx). Tell me what you think.

Say the sentence above, using Proloquo at the same time.

From the home page of Proloquo, select like as you say "I like this".

Now select the blue tab, then select the Opinions folder.

Now select an appropriate positive opinion word as you say "It's xxx". Then, as you say "you" select the you button.

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too - so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

SHARED READING: LEVELS 2 & ABOVE: PROLoquo

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I like this. It's (xxx). Tell me what you think.

The diagram illustrates the steps for using ProLoquo to create an invitation to participate. It shows four screenshots of the app interface with numbered annotations:

- 1: Select the 'I like this' icon (a person pointing at a book) in the 'I like this' section.
- 2: Select the 'It's (xxx)' icon (a person pointing at a book) in the 'It's (xxx)' section.
- 3: Select the 'Tell me what you think' icon (a person pointing at a book) in the 'Tell me what you think' section.
- 4: Select the opinion you select for xxx (e.g., 'happy' or 'sad') in the 'Feeling' section.
- 5: Select the 'you' icon (a person pointing at a book) in the 'you' section.

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I do not like this. It's (xxx).
Tell me what you think.

Say the sentence above, using Proloquo at the same time.

From the home page of Proloquo, select not as you say "I do not like this".

Now select the blue tab, then select the Opinions folder.

Now select an appropriate negative opinion word as you say "It's xxx". Then, as you say "you" select the you button.

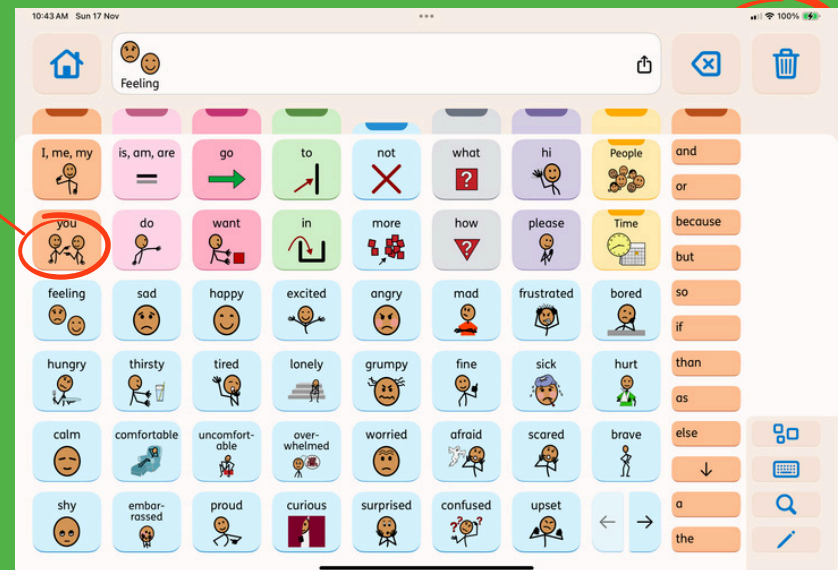

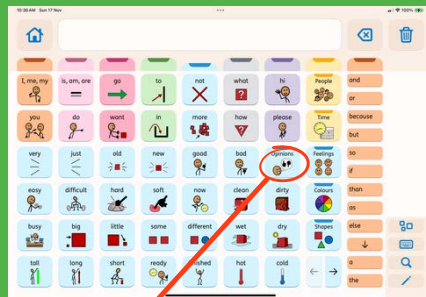

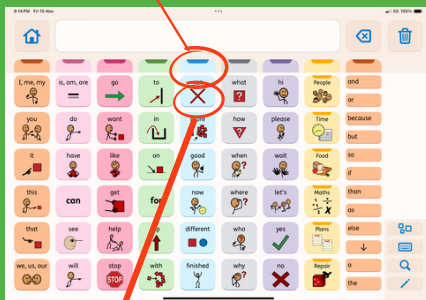

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too - so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I do not like this. It's (xxx). Tell me what you think.

④ = the opinion you select for xxx

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

Where do you think they might go?

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo.

Now say “I’m asking a question”. Then say the sentence above, using Proloquo at the same time.

As you say “where” select the where button, and as you say “go” select the go button.

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

If needed, you can also select the yellow tab and then Places.

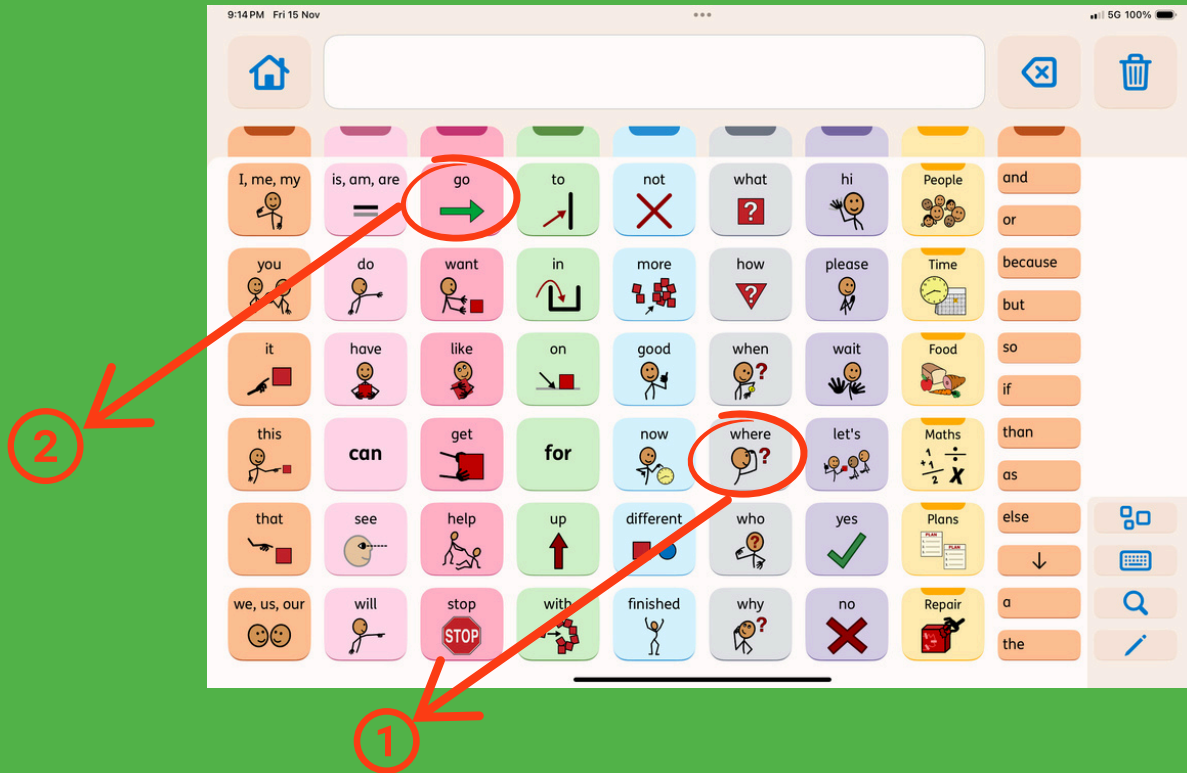

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

SHARED READING: LEVELS 2 & ABOVE: PROLOGUE

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

Where do you think they might go?

SHARED READING: LEVELS 2 & ABOVE: PROLoquo

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I wonder what they're going to do....

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo.
Now say the sentence above, using Proloquo at the same time.

As you say “do” select the do button (pink, top row).

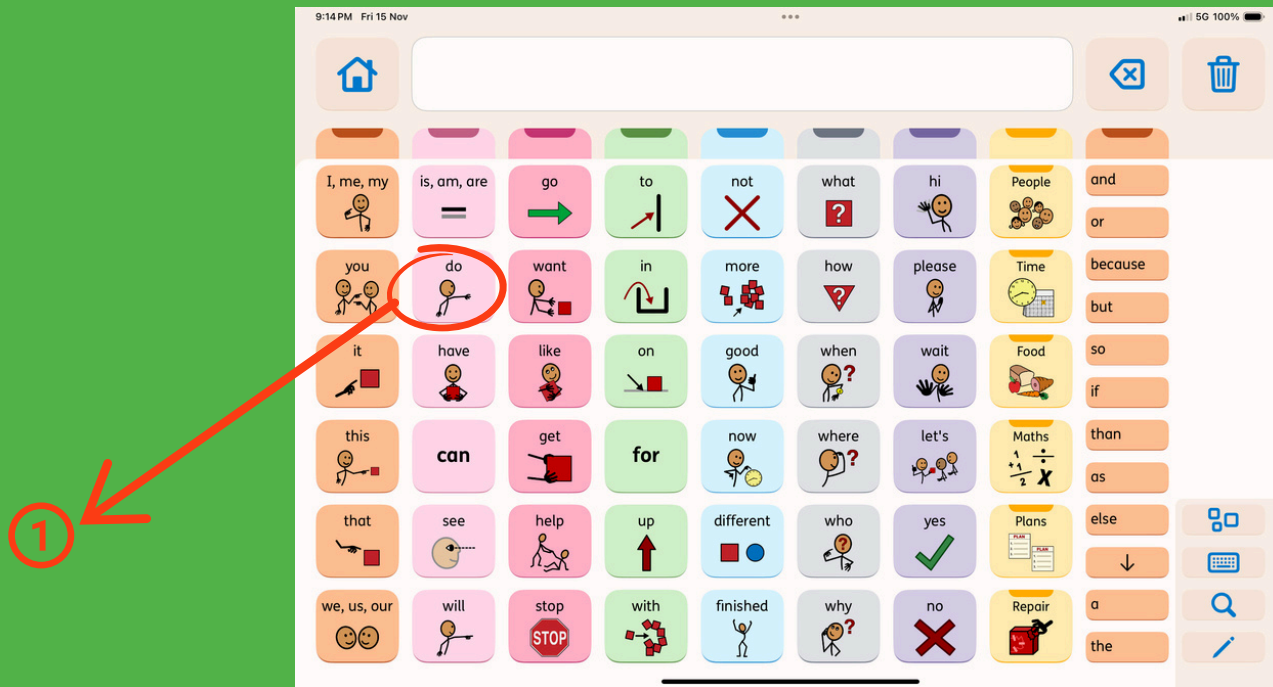

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.

SHARED READING: LEVELS 2 & ABOVE: PROLOGUE

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

I wonder what they're going to do....

Uh oh, that's bad.....

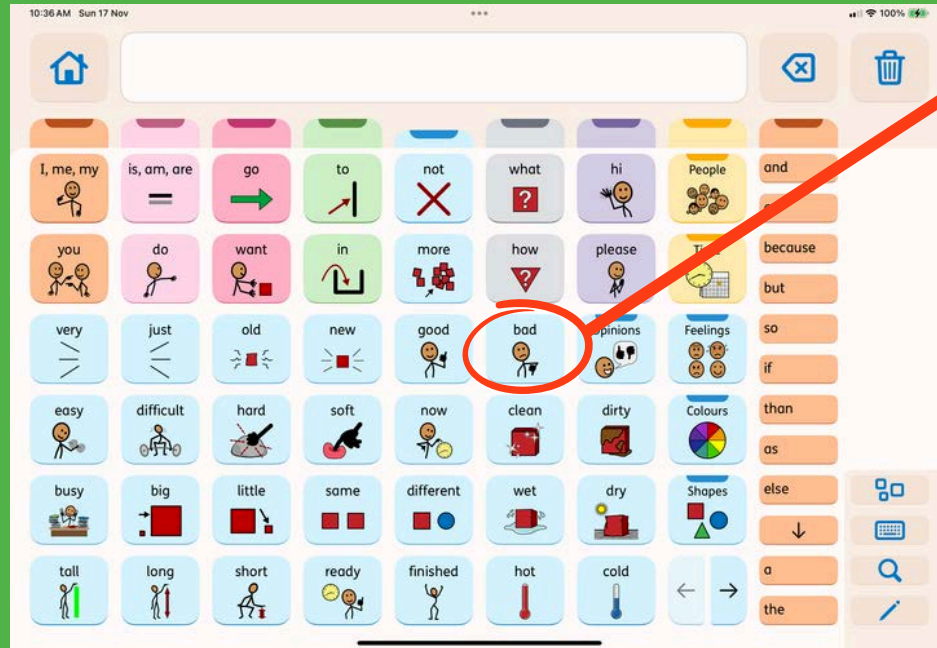

Look at the student with an expectant pause to invite them to participate. If needed, gesture to their AAC system to prompt them to use it.

SHARED READING: LEVELS 2 & ABOVE: PROLoquo

INVITATIONS TO PARTICIPATE

Uh oh, that's bad.....

Please note: in all interactions, we are aiming to use 80% comments and 20 % questions to help our students develop as autonomous communicators. This applies in shared reading too – so please model comments as you read and as part of invitations to participate.