

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

See

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

Point to something in the shared reading book that you think a student will be interested in. Now say “Look what I can see”. As you say see, select see.

Watch to see what the student’s body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: “ You are [smiling]*, I think you like it”.

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say “You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it”.

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say “I wonder if you are thinking about this”.

As you say think, select think.

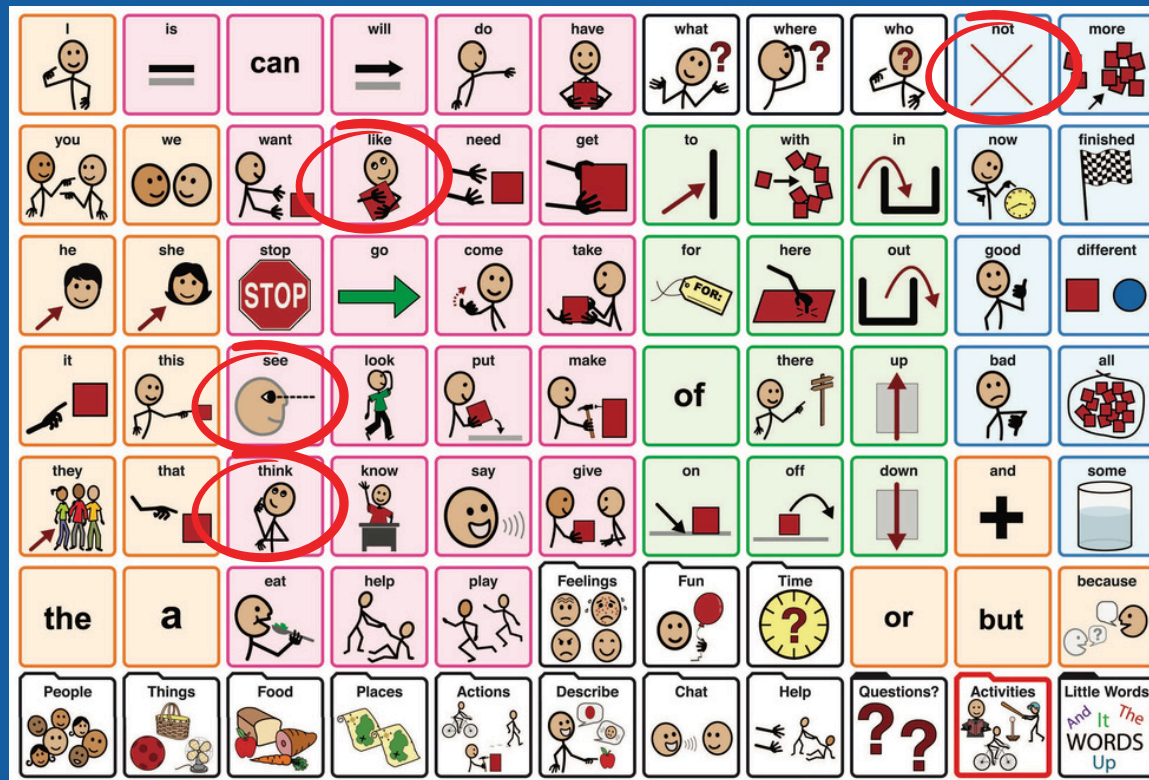

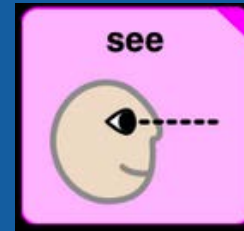

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don’t ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

See

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Do

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

Point to a picture in the shared reading book where a character is doing something. Now say “Look what they are doing”. As you say doing, select do.

Watch to see what the student’s body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: “ You are [smiling]*, I think you like it”.

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say “You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it”.

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say “I wonder if you are thinking about this”.

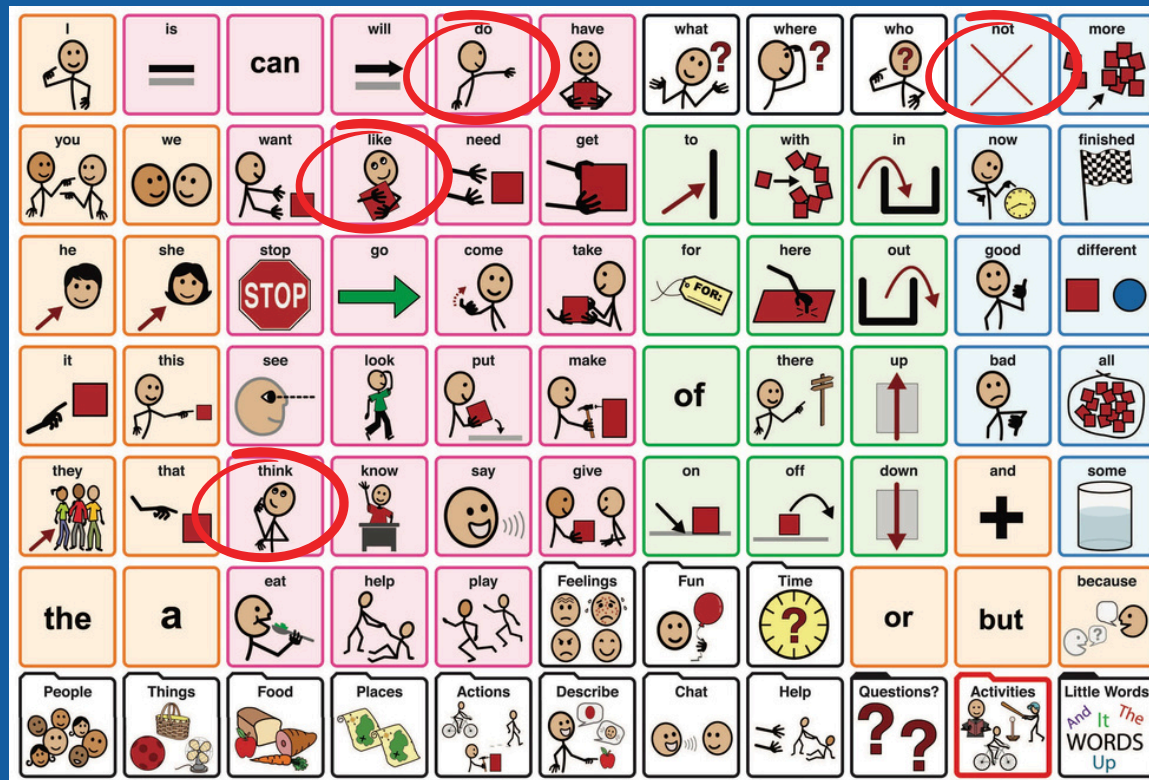

As you say think, select think.

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Do

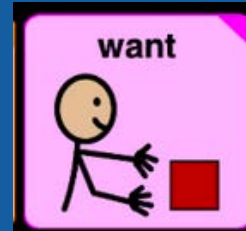

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Want

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

As you get to something in the shared reading book that a character wants, say "I think they want that". As you say want, select want.

Watch to see what the student's body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: "You are [smiling]*, I think you like it".

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say "You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it".

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say "I wonder if you are thinking about this".

As you say think, select think.

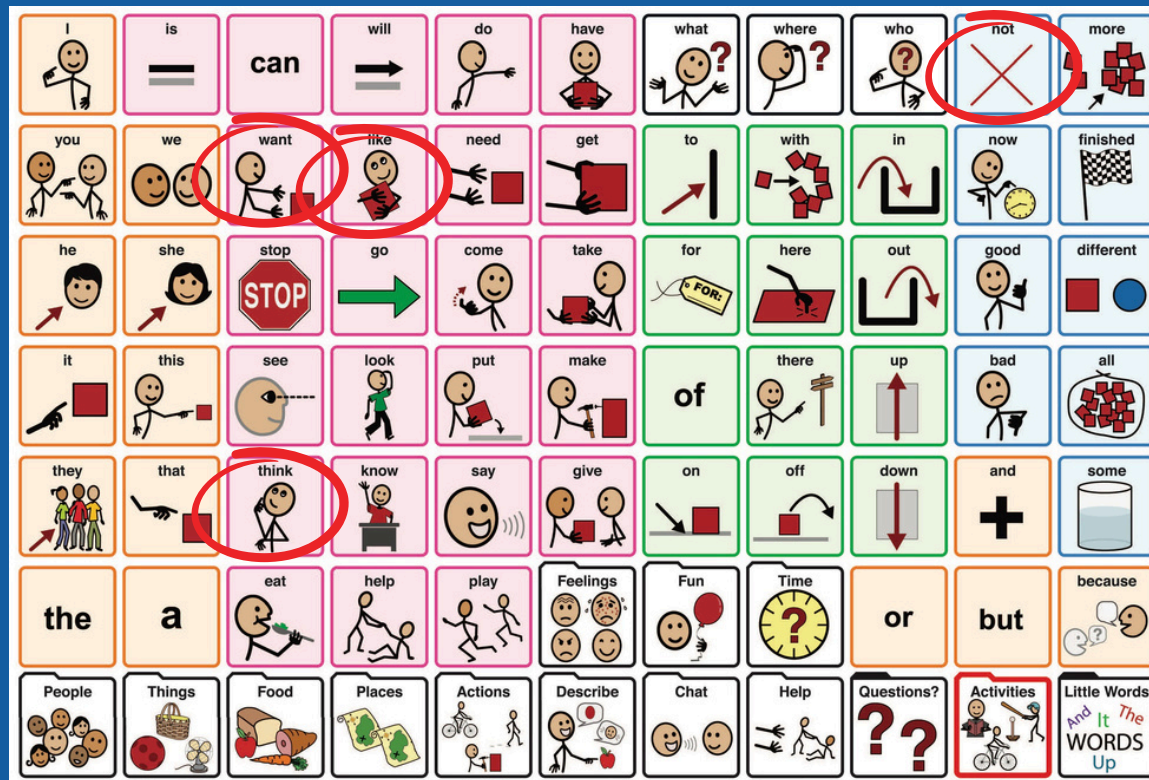

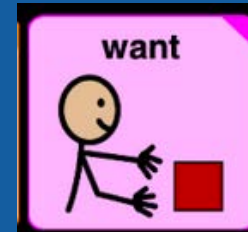

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUO2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Want

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Help

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

As you get to a situation in the shared reading book where a character needs help, say "I think they need help". As you say help, select help.

Watch to see what the student's body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: "You are [smiling]*, I think you like it".

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say "You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it".

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say "I wonder if you are thinking about this".

As you say think, select think.

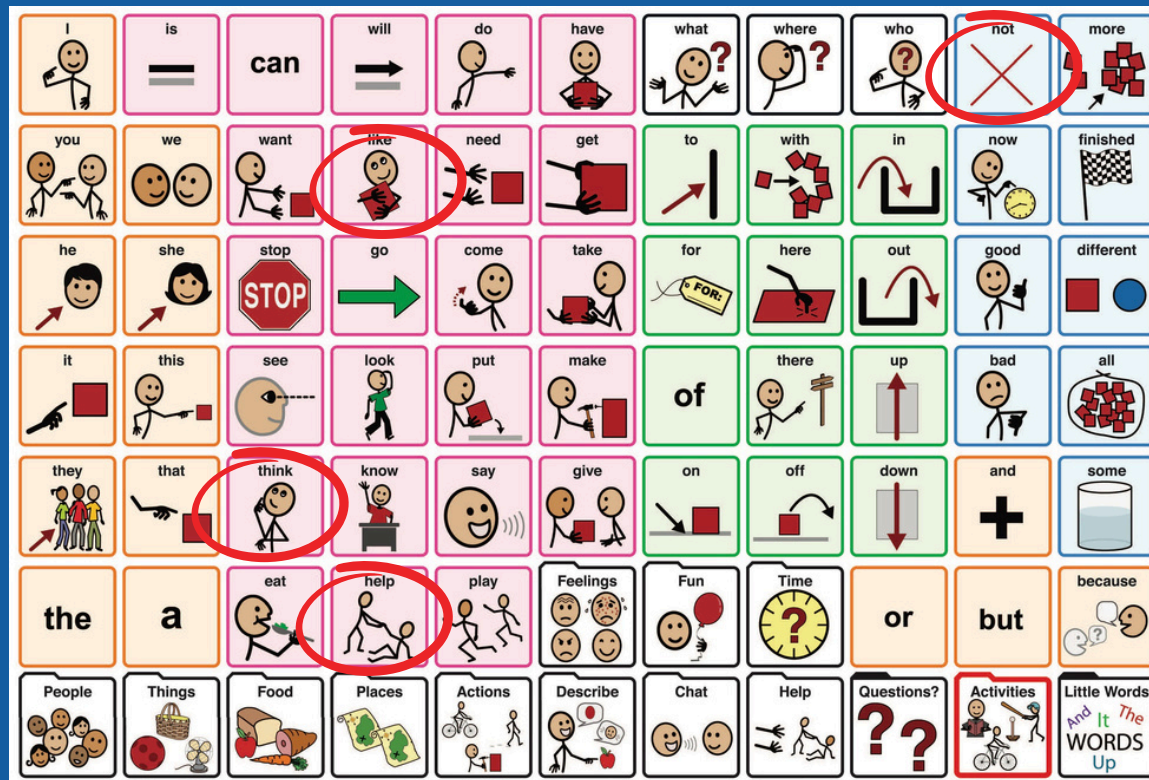

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Help

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Stop

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

As you get to a situation in the shared reading book where a something or someone needs stop, say "Stop!". As you say stop, select stop.

Watch to see what the student's body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: " You are [smiling]*, I think you like it".

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say "You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it".

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say "I wonder if you are thinking about this".

As you say think, select think.

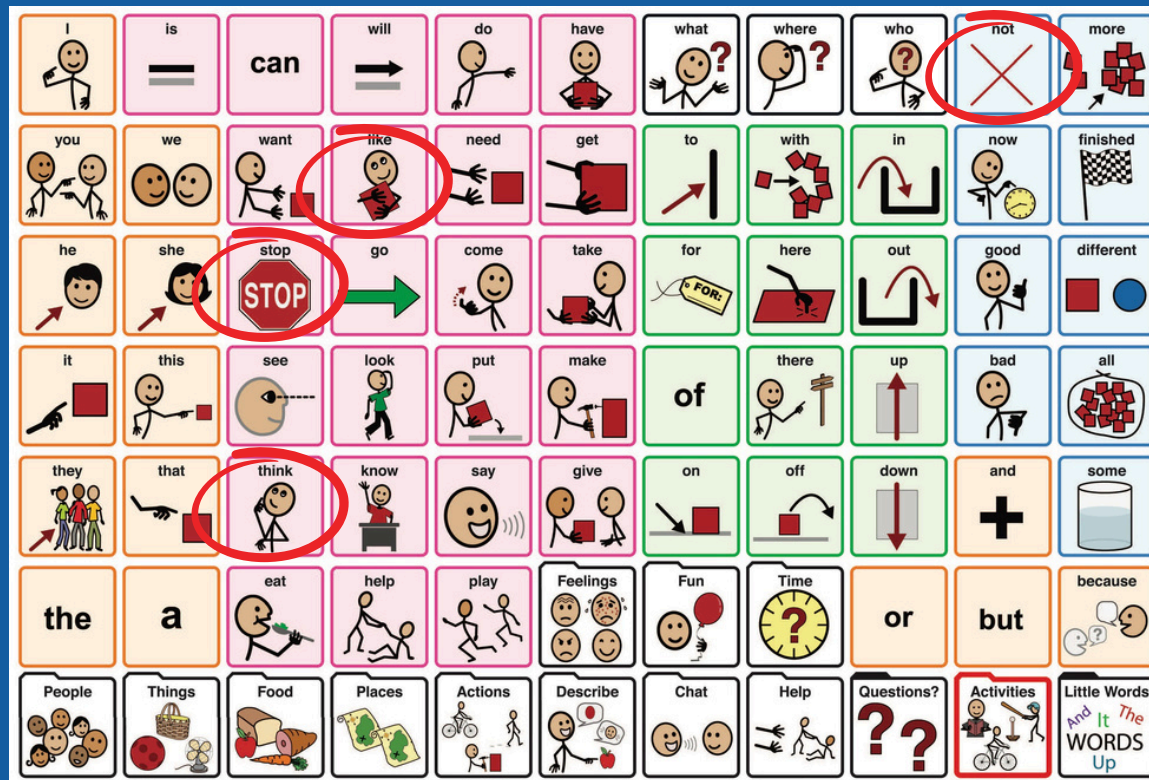

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUO2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Stop

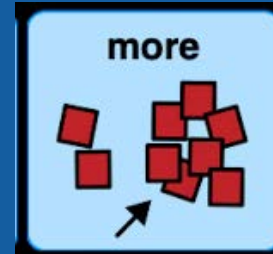

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

More

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

Point to a picture in the shared reading book where something more is happening. Say “Oh there’s more”. As you say more, select more.

Watch to see what the student’s body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: “ You are [smiling]*, I think you like it”.

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say “You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it”.

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say “I wonder if you are thinking about this”.

As you say think, select think.

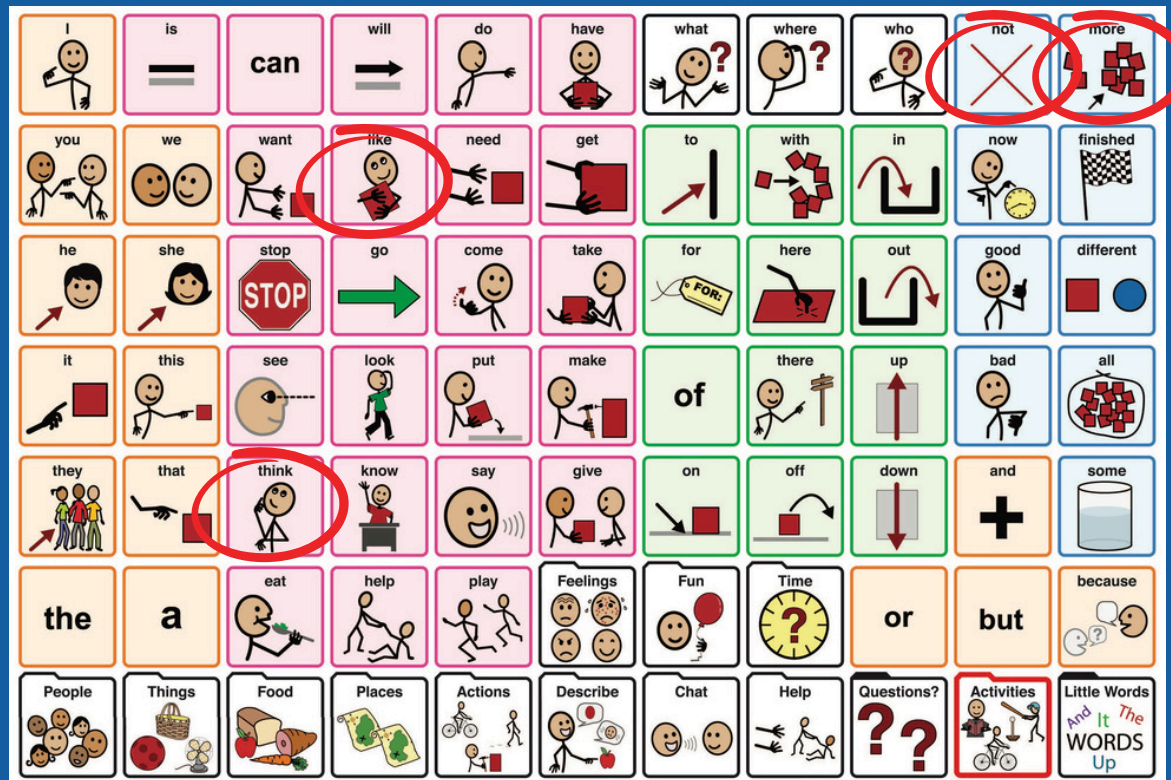

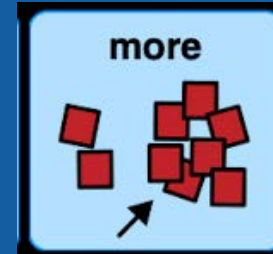

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don’t ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

More

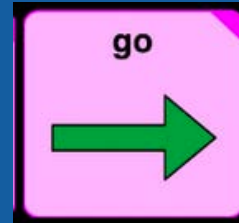

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Go

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

Point to a picture in the shared reading book where a character is going somewhere. Now say "I think they are going". As you say go, select go.

Watch to see what the student's body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: " You are [smiling]*, I think you like it".

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say "You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it".

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say "I wonder if you are thinking about this".

As you say think, select think.

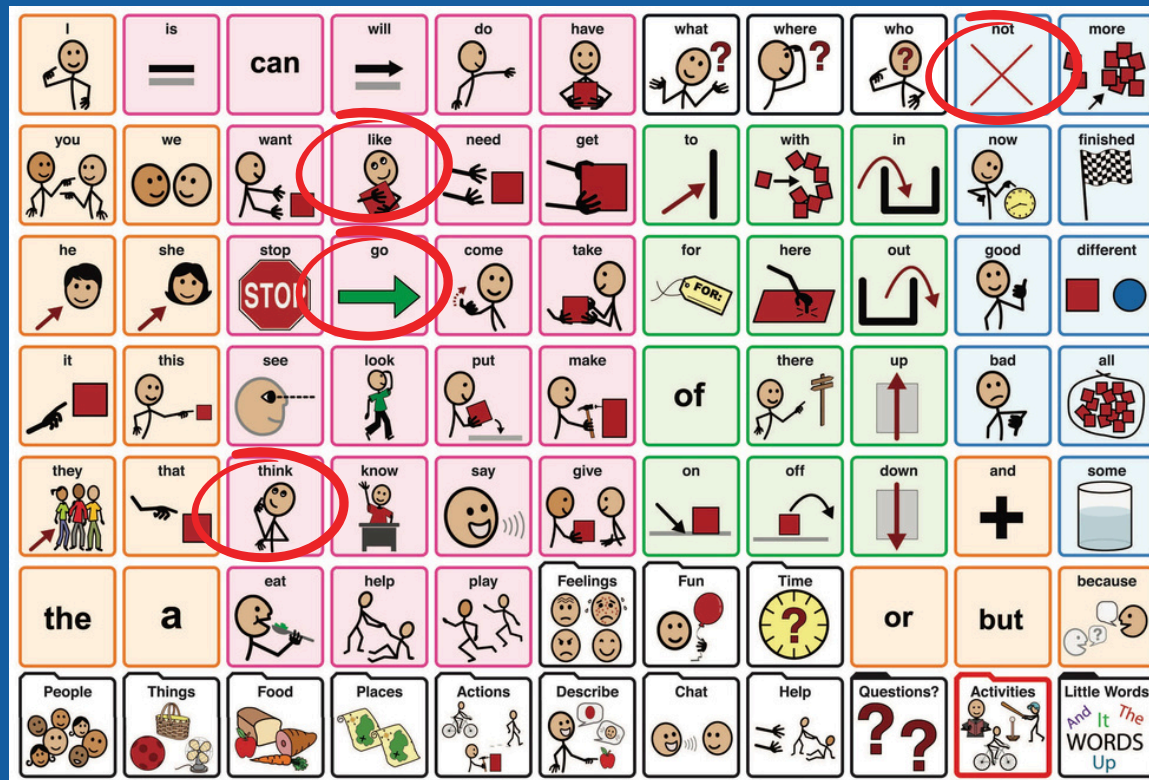

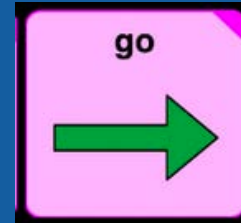

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Go

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Play

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

Point to a picture in the shared reading book where a character is playing. Now say “Look at them playing”. As you say playing, select play.

Watch to see what the student’s body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: “ You are [smiling]*, I think you like it”.

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say “You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it”.

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say “I wonder if you are thinking about this”.

As you say think, select think.

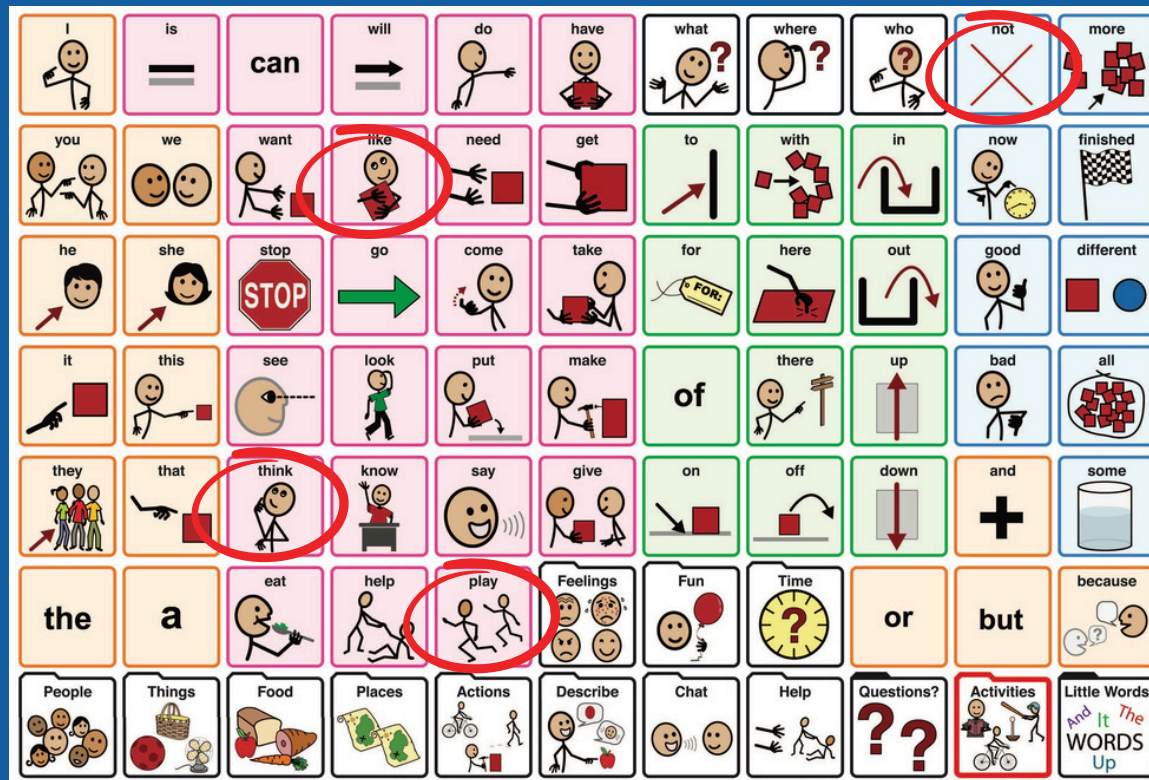

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don’t ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Play

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Good

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

Point to a picture in the shared reading book where something good is happening. Say “Yay! That’s good!” As you say good, select good.

Watch to see what the student’s body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: “ You are [smiling]*, I think you like it”.

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say “You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it”.

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say “I wonder if you are thinking about this”.

As you say think, select think.

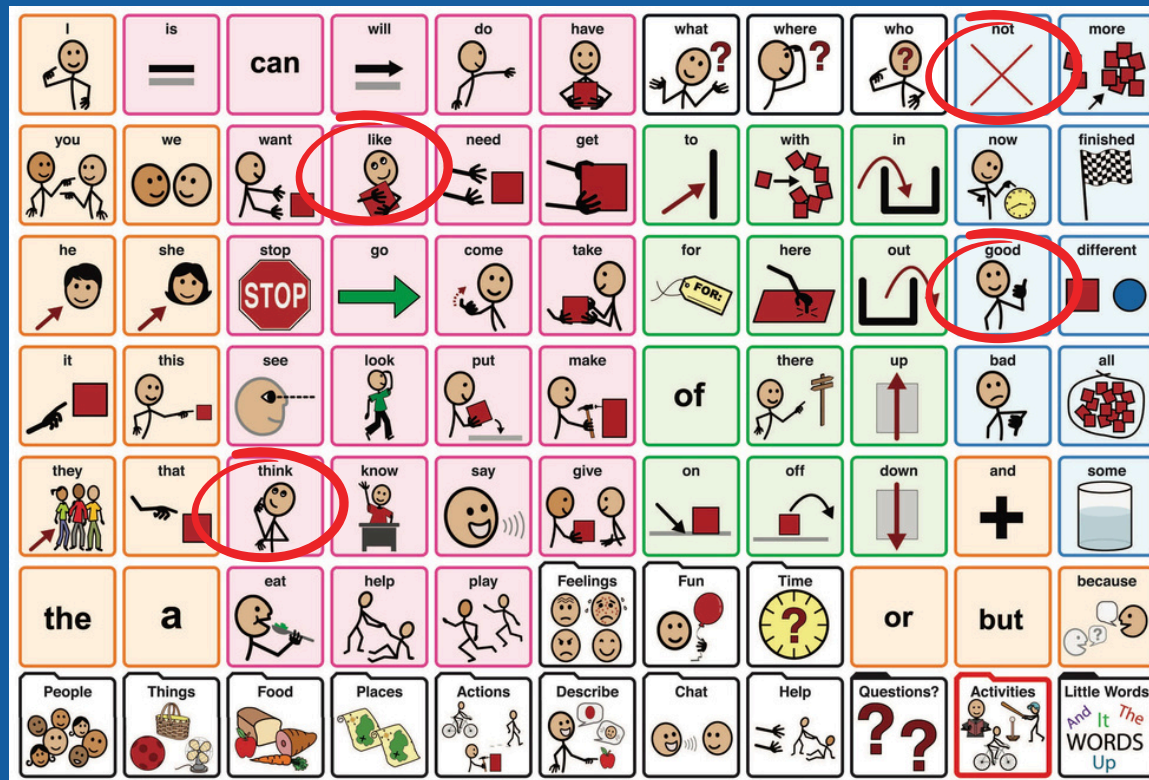

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don’t ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Good

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoquo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Bad

Make sure you are on the home page of Proloquo2Go.

Point to a picture in the shared reading book where something bad is happening. Say "Oh no! That's bad!" As you say bad, select bad.

Watch to see what the student's body language/facial expression is telling you.

If they smile/look happy say: "You are [smiling]*, I think you like it".

As you say like, select like.

If they look unhappy say "You are [frowning]*, I think you do not like it".

As you say not, select not.

If they look uninterested say "I wonder if you are thinking about this".

As you say think, select think.

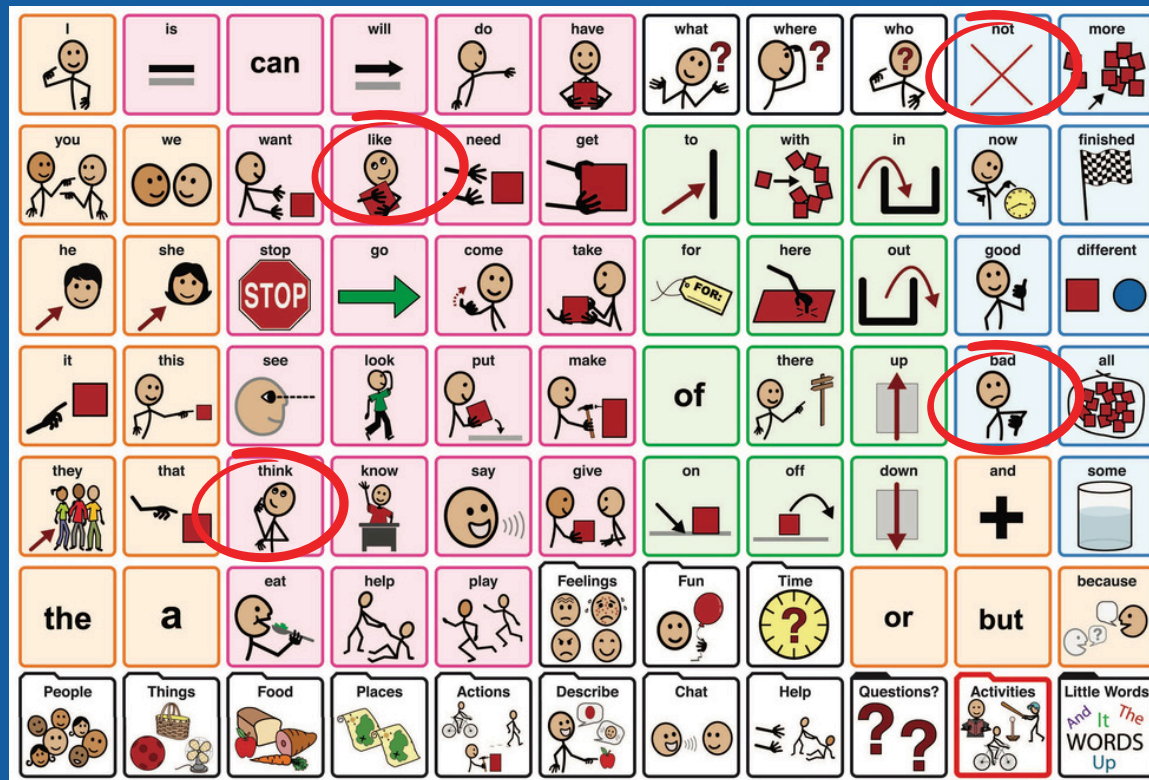

*The words in square brackets need to be changed to describe what the student is showing.

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.

SHARED READING: LEVEL 1: PROLoQUo2Go

MODELLING AAC & VERBAL REFERENCING

Bad

Please note: For Level 1 students we don't ask questions. We model language and we focus on describing what their body language and facial expression is telling us. Students do not have to look to be listening.